DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS MEETING

The Daughters of Veterans held an interesting meeting, Friday evening, with a large attendance of guests with present. A program in commemoration of Washington's birthday was carried out with the presentation of colors by Mrs. Mrs. Brown and four other bearers. Miss Lois Marston, Miss Vesta Smith, Mrs. Eva Abbott and Mrs. Vesta Smith. A reading on Washington was given by Mrs. Evis Cook, four girls, the Misses Ruthie and Beatrice Shattuck, Mildred Galt and Genevieve Trask. Rendered two songs. A costume song, "The Hatlet," was given by the Misses Sharon, Donald, Patricia, Jean, and Wesley Brown. A fine poem, Washington and Lincoln, was given by Mrs. Ada Trask. Small red hats were distributed, each bearing a question on Washington and those present answered. A song, "The Old Flag," was sung, and a "jogged" one memory. A contest of states was also a test of wit and geography. Placeards were attached along the hall representing every state. Then the next on the program was a unique penny lunch served "a la carte." Another ordered a cocktail, which was a feather stuck into a cock's stomach, a lump of sugar and a cup of tea.

After lunch there was a cakewalk, the cake being decorated to represent a flag. Mrs. Mary Kimball won the prize and then presented it to the hostess, Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Flora Newcomb, Mrs. Marie Brown and Mrs. Mary Kimball. The committee for next meeting includes Mrs. Ruby Sharon, Mrs. Virgie Merrill and Mrs. Gladys Noyes.

SEPPALA VISITED NORWAY

Leonard Seppala, the famous Alaskan musher, and his pair of four-month-old husky dogs, bred into town, Tuesday, from Poland Spring, Me. "Ted," Ricker, Jr. of Poland Spring accompanied him. Running loose was "Togo," the best dog in the world known journey Seppala made to the far north carrying antitoxin to the stricken natives. "Togo" has been presented to the Norway High School in Maine to lead the well known dog team that has attracted much attention throughout the state.

The visitors were captured by Harry A. Packard, a newspaper writer, who "covered" the late races at Poland Spring and a friend of Seppala. The team posed for pictures then trotted about town. A visit to the W. P. Tubbs Snowshoe Co. factory was a mutual pleasure and Seppala was delighted with his gift from the proprietors, a pair of the best skis in the history. The party returned to Poland Spring late in the afternoon.

Seppala has spring fever, so to speak. He leaves next week for Alaska to make a long slide journey into the interior before the spring is too far advanced.

LETTER FROM GLADYS SMITH

My dear friends: Just a few lines from the land of Sunshine and I can well be called that at Naples, on the Gulf, because since arriving here, Jan. 5th, I have not failed to see the sun and rain and the beautiful blue sky. It has only rained one night and that night we had a bad storm so that we arose and dressed, thinking another tornado was coming.

Naples was pretty well hit by the last storm, the large pier was demolished and many buildings damaged. The Gulf is lovely, also the beach, one of the best enjoyments I get is collecting shells, of which I have a large assortment. Good nuts are plentiful. Swimming and fishing are great here on the Gulf. Will close now, hoping that all my friends are well. I will send you the next type of the State when summer comes—Gladys Smith, Naples Hotel, Naples on the Gulf, Florida.

In last week's Advertiser 13 deaths were announced and the age totaled 954 years. Therefore, the average was a little over 73 years each.

Alton C. Wheeler, who has been ill nearly two weeks, went Sunday night to St. Barnabas Hospital, Portland. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wheeler and a trained nurse.

NORWAY LAKE

Little Maurice Dulles fell on the ice one day last week and cut such a gash in his head that it was necessary to take stitches which the little fellow bravely endured without a murmur.

There was a family gathering at James Frost's Thursday evening, the 24th, in honor of Mrs. Frost's 70th birthday anniversary. This was a surprise to Mr. Frost who was called home from the hall to greet the smiling faces of children and grandchildren. A large birthday cake graced the occasion.

Stanley Reichelder was out of school last week with the measles.

Ralph Dunham has the measles.

SUMMER

We regret to write that Oliph Varney's family has moved from the Martin place, so called, to Clyde Morrill's place on Summer Hill, as they were neighbors of the kind that everyone likes to keep in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Emerson Bartlett carried Mrs. Lovell Oldham and children to Buckfield twice last week to see Dr. Atwood, who is treating her baby for an abscess under her throat. Lovell is working for Mr. Waterhouse at the head of Lake Worthley helping to set up his birch mill which is near completion.

Heavy frosts up green woods way; there are three, two horse teams hauling birch for Mr. Pingree and Lester Merrill has a pair of Alfred Morrill's steers to do some yarding with.

Ben Little is hauling birch with four steers and a pair of horses from the Crockett lot to the Tibbets mill.

Then there is the pulpwood hauling from the Penley lot to East Summer with Donald Varney as the contractor and for teams there are as follows: Donald Varney with his horses, Arlon Farrar with Seldon Barrett's horses, Oliph Varney with his and Homer Farrar with Linn Farrar's horses, Floyd Varney with four large oxen and Irvin Bartlett with his pair, and when this procession forms up on the main line all loaded, believe me, there is some pulpwood upon its way to the station.

Lell Poland, George Heath and Adelt Davenport, each with a pair of horses, are hauling logs from the Anderson lot near Ragged Jack, out onto the Sturfield field, all hard wood and very good quality too, they estimate the cut to be seventy-five thousand feet they say that this lumber is to be hauled from here to the new veneer mill at Canton in the spring upon trucks.

The former Dyer barn under the management of Linn Cole, its new owner, is filled to its capacity.

Saturday, the 25th, this vicinity was showered with ten or twelve inches of the beautiful, who says we are not going to have snow enough to log from the mountain with. Everyone busy breaking roads, Sunday, the 26th.

Official statement, that P. V. Redding sold seventeen thousand gallons of gasoline in the year 1926.

Travel was suspended here for several days after the big storm of Saturday and Sunday. The mail, Saturday, was brought on snowshoes. It is said there is the most snow in the roads in this section than for many years.

Word has been received from Sylvester Pratt of the University of Maine that no new cases of scarlet fever having developed, the quarantine has been removed from Beta Theta Phi house where he is.

Everyone in this vicinity deeply regrets the loss by fire of Sturfield to Mrs. Hebron Academy, Monday morning, Mr. Hunt has the sympathy of everyone here. B. M. Pratt visited here several days.

MILTON
Nancy Millett is home from Lynn, Mass., where she is teaching school.

Chas. Buck is gaining slowly after his bad spell he had a week ago. Mrs. Fred Buck is helping care for him.

The senior class of Woodstock High School repeated their play, "Aunt Jerusha on the War Path," at West Paris, under the auspices of the July 12, 1926, Thursday evening. The students were well suited to their parts in the play. "Aunt Jerusha" was played by Miss Erskine, "Sufficiency Fish" by Miss "Poppy," George Forbes, Jr., as town constable, did well and kept Evelyn Coffey as Aunt Jerusha, guessing their parts. "Aunt Jerusha" was "Poppy," with ambitions for a great play as the carnival, along with Donald Deane whose eye for business as manager of the carnival, and Carrie Coffey, was a source of much concern to the worthy Everett Davis as "Elmer Sunfishes." Mary Martin as "Stella Sunfishes" caused a commotion at the end of her money, and being deserted at the altar at the same time. Florence Whitman as "The Carnival Queen," was played by Miss Fuller substituted. Leora Coffey did the part of a social worker, while the children of West Paris Intermediate School joined in the Carnival scene. Specialties between acts were well done. Miss McGee gave a selection on the violin; Miss Rowe sang a solo; Ruth Forbes and Donald Deane sang duets, with Mrs. Mann at the piano. Much credit is due Mrs. Mann and her mother for their personal interest in the young people of the play, also the young twelve for their interest and kind help. A fine supper was served and danced followed the play.

Snowed in From Outside World—Eloise Millett Returned to Quincy, Mass.—Miss Wilkins Has Clever Invention.

The worst blizzard of the season struck us on Saturday. Twenty-two inches of snow fell. There was no mail from Harrison as the narrow gauge train was snowed in at Bridgton Junction. Telephone and telegraph wires were down, no communication with Portland until Sunday afternoon. The road breaking crew was out in good season on Sunday morning with the roller and six horses and put in a long day of hard work. A good deal of shoveling had to be done. No church services were held on Sunday on account of the storm.

Mary Rounds and Katherine Stone are spending part of their vacation at their homes. They left Boston on Saturday morning but on account of the storm could not get home until Monday afternoon.

Eloise Millett has been visiting her parents for a week. She planned to go back to her school in Quincy, Mass., on Saturday but the roads were so blocked that she had to stay in Waterford until Monday.

Mrs. A. C. Townsend has been ill with the grippe.

Miss Susan Wilkins has had an elevator built for her use as her increasing lameness makes it very hard for her to climb the stairs. The clever invention of track and carriage run by a pulley, was the work of Dr. R. E. Hubbard and Urban Jones and we think it should be patented. It is a very satisfactory arrangement.

Miss Stanley, who has been working for Miss Wilkins for more than a year, left today for her home in Stoughton. Christine Jovett of Naples has taken her place.

Mr. Bancroft is packing apples for T. F. Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Johnson are recovering from severe colds.

A sad load of people attended the opening of the Farm Bureau in South Waterford on Friday and report an interesting meeting.

The Women's Division of the Farm Bureau held their meeting in Grange Hall, Friday, Feb. 25th. Miss Braden of So. Paris in charge. "Square meals for Health" were in order. The committee prepared and served rice and cheese soufflé, cabbage and nut salad, graham bread and cocoa. These foods contained all things necessary for a healthy growth of the body. March 16th, a contest of "Square Meals for Health" is to start and continue until December. No more meals like the "Apple Cookery" dinner this year. Miss Braden gave a very fine talk on foods that furnish the proteins, energy, minerals, and vitamins for the body. From her talk and the dinner served, one would judge that many of us are taking far too much food daily for our health. Twenty-seven women, one man and four children sat down to the dinner. Several were visitors. Next meeting is to be at Waterford Community House.

Some in the village were extremely busy the week of February 22nd, shoveling snow from their wood and then Nature spoiled all the work.

Wedding Reception—Knights of Pythias Dance.

We had the largest snow storm of the winter, Saturday, February 26th, about eighteen inches of heavy, damp snow fell, piling it up in deep drifts as it came.

A good time was declared by all who attended the reception and dance of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McAlister, Friday evening. They had many useful presents to numerous to mention and they served a lovely treat of hot coffee, cake, candy and peanuts and cigars. Music was furnished by Mychelle Barker, piano, Barton Files and Raymond McAlister, banjo, Adrian Stearns, violin and Charles Stearns, the drums. Lottie Butters helped out at the piano and Barton Files and Carlton Barker took turns playing the violin, so each one would have a chance to dance.

A Washington program was presented by the committee, Grace Blockford, Edith Chaplin and Minnie Littlefield, which was enjoyed by all. All sisters present taking part in the songs, quotations, and poems. "Had Never Dared Hope for Such Rosy, Rugged Health"

Respected Augusta matron tells life-long fight for health. Puny and fragile from childhood, sees husband helped to health by Tanlac and tries it. Gains 53 lbs. Robust at last, thanks Tanlac

At No. 2 Tobey St., Augusta, Me., lives Mrs. William Moody, well and favorably known to a large circle of friends. Fragile from childhood, always ailing, she never dared hope for robust health. Here is her story in her own words: "As long as I can remember, I have been puny and sickly. My parents did all they could when I was a baby, to strengthen my constitution. But puny I remained. I never expected to be otherwise.

"My husband's marvelous recovery from three years of wasting illness encouraged me. Tanlac could help me, much for him, why not for me? So I gave it a fair trial. I really did not expect more than a temporary relief.

But what it actually did was to rebuild my system entirely. From 98 pounds I gradually grew to 151 lbs. and right now I feel peppier and stronger than I have for years.

"Tanlac alone is entitled to the credit for that astounding change. My husband and I both recommend it from first hand experience of its surprising results."

Thousands of citizens in every state of the Union have won renewed health and vigor with Tanlac. If you're run-down, overworked, worry, or neglect, start building your way back to normalcy today. Get a trial bottle of Tanlac from your druggist. It is nature's own remedy made from herbs, roots and barks, according to the famous Tanlac formula. Over 52 million bottles sold.
